

Personal Development School

Benefits of joining the IKC Personal Development School:

- International Kinesiology College certificates with unique P.I.N. number (personal identification number) linked with a data base.
- Data base kept of all your students throughout the world regardless of instructor.
- Listing on the IKC website with a link to your own website.
- Ability to advertise your courses on the IKC website.
- Internationally recognised IKC logo can be used on all approved course materials.
- Work is protected in the event of death or incapacity of the registered applicant.
- A one time endorsement fee with no annual fees required following approval.